

CANADA'S TOP

50
RESEARCH UNIVERSITIES

Canada's Top 50 Research Universities List is an exclusive free offering of RESEARCH Infosource Inc., Canada's leading firm providing business intelligence information and analysis for science, technology, research, development and innovation. Data are drawn from Statistics Canada and our Canadian University R&D Database. Total sponsored research income figures include income from federal, provincial and foreign governments, grants and contracts, and any other non-governmental sources providing research funding or contracts to universities. Also available is Canada's Top Research Universities Report, containing detailed information and analysis on the R&D activities of 67 universities. The List and accompanying Report are the most comprehensive sources of information on the sponsored research activities of Canada's universities. Together, they provide an in-depth profile of the magnitude and changes in research funding in the university sector. For additional information about the Top 50 List, or the Top Research Universities Report, please view our website (www.researchinfosource.com) or contact us at the address below.
